

H300: Parts of a speech quick quiz and notes

- A. Listen to the teachers presentation. Answer the questions.
When we are all finished, we will check the answers together.

① What is the introduction?

- a. An introduction says the main ideas and what you will talk about and is at the start of the speech.
- b. It has all the opinions and reasons why.
- c. It is at the end of the speech and is just filler.

② What is the conclusion?

- a. It is where we say our supporting information, opinions, and reasons for those opinions.
- b. It is at the end of a speech and we say our final thoughts on the topic or what we want to tell the people listening.
- c. It is where we introduce what we will talk about.

③ What is a hook in a speech?

- a. It is where we state our final thoughts
- b. It is an interesting sentence or story about our topic.
- c. It is a couple sentences where we say why we think something and is found in the body of the speech.
- d. It isn't important.

④ Why do we use a "hook" in our introduction?

- a. It makes people want to listen to our speech.
- b. It is because it makes our speech more boring.
- c. It organizes our speech better.

⑤ What is the body?

- a. It is the "lettuce, meat, and tomato" of our speech, where all the main points are talked about.
- b. It is the first paragraph of a speech.
- c. It is here we sum up our final thoughts at the end of a speech.

⑥ What can we find in the body of a speech?

- a. The beginning
- b. Middle
- c. The end. The last part of the speech.

⑦ From the choices, which do you think is the most important when making a speech? Why?

Answers:

1. A

2. B

3. B

4. A

5. A

6. B

7. Open, Discuss with students